"Neighbors who love neighbors" Named by Ginny TedderA group of women who meet casually for a meal on such a peak day in West Jefferson. (CREW) © said: Ginny Tedder) In West Jefferson and all over Ashe County, if you have a problem or a crisis or if you just need a friend, never be afraid. People here believe in looking at each other. People like to buy meals for other people, especially in a drive-through where the lucky recipients have no idea who they are. © who gave this treatment. When there is a fire or an accident, we do not wait on the shore and expect others to take care of it; We all do what we can to help. If there is sickness and mother expenses © Increasing tips for one of our neighbors, we are quick to form a fund-raising campaign to help. Here you can always find help. Cows line up at the front o f Ashe County Cheese Inc, the oldest cheese factory in Carolinas, where people can visit to see the cheese being made. (CREW) © Several years ago, a young boy suffered horrific injuries from a tree member while camping. Everyone here has done what they can for him and his family for months, and yes, for years. I am pleased to report that he continues to live and love this great place! Provide: Assistant Living 535 U. S 158 W, Yanceyville, NC 27379 "I liked Caswell House more than any other place. Claiming Caring.com List "Casa do Shrain Festival" nominated by members of the community Teresa Simmonscmmunity Socialize outside. (Crédo: Teresa Simmons) lterecent is a small military town that is very welcoming. Whenever I visit, the sites are always smiling and seem happy. My brother and I died on the ferry all see as children to get away from the streets of NYC during the Summer Fans. Itinegave ~ s a family community, and they speak exactly as theyj @ Estámém seen you for years. As New York, this is very welcoming and comforting to see so much cohesion between strangers. I was on the way to the supermarket, and the number of people who talked to me made me look back and try to see if I remember them from somewhere. It was necessary that my elderly aunt remembers that we were in the carrier carrier carrier Eureka Ferry, Serafins and that we are now in what people did. She reminded me of speaking and keeping talking about my business, which is what I do every time I visit Sneadsferry. (Crédo: Teresa Simmons) All clan can enjoy a trip to Greensboro, North Carolina, which combines a small town feeling with great attractions of the city. Your historical importance and friendly activities make the city a popular choice for family. Greensboro is historically significant for African-American civil rights. In February 1, 1960, four students staged a Sit-in lunch balcony, and their efforts are now immortalized by the statue located on the campus of the State University of North Carolina. Charlotte Hawkins Brown founded a school for African Americans in 1902, which she eventually saw more 1,000 graduates and is now a historic state of the state and museum. Other historical places in the area include the Old Mill of Guilford, a mill founded in 1767 that continues to make (and sell) all-natural ground food. The Carolina Model Truckers, with their display of miniature trains navigating detailed camera, will be of interest to children of all ages. Young people will enjoy going to work on "Our Town," an exhibition at Greensboro Children's Museum that features a DC-9 jet, police cruiser and pizza ©. Children can also engage© in ArtQuest, part of the Green Hill Center for North Carolina Art, which provides an interactive stage where creative minds can paint, weave, shape clay, and more. Green Hill © also offers five different exhibitions each year with Artists from North Carolina. Another family favorite is going to see the game. The Greensboro Grasshoppers, an only A affiliate of the FIA³rida Marlins, has been deterred by more than a million fans since 2005. The Carolina Dynamo plays just 20 minutes away, and is affiliated with Major League Soccer's Columbus Team. Flights to Greensboro arrive and depart from Piedmont Triad International Airport, just twenty minutes from the centre. Center.
