Always check that the bar labels can be read by the bar code reader.For better results, print barcode labels with black ink on white tape barcode readers. Some may not be able to read the labels of Barcodes created with colored ribbon or ink. Use the [Large] setting for [Width], whenever possible. Some barcode players may not be able to read barcodes created using small] setting.continuously printing a large number of barcode labels can overheat the print head, which can affect the quality print. Editing A Labelthe Actual Size of Printed Characters depends on the width of the belt, the number of characters and the number of input lines. Once the characters reach a minimum size, the selected font will settle a personalized character based on the Helsinki style.
