Seniors calling Methuen, Massachusetts, the house enjoys a city out suburbs while remaining connected to the community. Among the City's almost 50,000 residents, 14.6 percent are 65 and more elderly. A series of things to enjoy for this aging population include all year round activities at the Methun Senior Activity Center and Nevins Memorial Library, as well as concerts and other live performances at the Methun Memorial Music Hall. The elderly and their loved ones can go shopping, dine and watch movie at the loop or simply relax and appreciate nature in Forest Lake and the Methuen Rail Trail. Methun also has the hospital of the Holy Family at the avant-garde, and the city offers easy access to Boston and New Hampshire. As part of the region of Greater Boston, Methun is a relatively expensive area for home care. According to Genworth's 2019 Cost of Care Survey, In-home Care in Methuen Costs $ 5,434 Monthly, while domestic health care is slightly higher than $ 5,482. These amounts are significantly higher than domestic monthly averages in which home care and health care costs are $ 4,290 and $ 4,385 respectively. Note: The data relating to home care costs were not available for Methun, so data was used for the nearest city, Boston. At caring.com, we've compiled a complete list of all home care providers in the Methun area to complete with types of assistance provided, services offered and reviews from families who use them. In addition to our in-depth supplier listings, we've compiled a list of resources to help the elderly and their families access all the tools of 350 Main Street, Haverhill, MA, 01830 had a wonderful relationship with the Haverhill office.
