A genetic "we enjoyed your business" is better than anything, but the more creative messages can reinforce your marketing efforts and stimulate future sales. Structure your thank you message to remind the customers of the benefit of paying in time. If you offer a discount for anticipated payment, remember customers that they will save if they promptly transfer the money. You can say, "Thank you for your business! Remember that you save 10 percent if you pay within 10 days. That's $ 25 of savings on today's invoice." You can use a similar message to promote a form of payment, such as electrical transfer or criterion card: "Thank you for your order to save 5 percent if you pay online." Your thanks note can also reference the length of the business relationship, which reminds you of the customer that you value your loyalty. You can refer to the number of years or the date of the first order of the client. An option is, "Thank you for being our client since 2011. We look forward to serving you in the future." Another option: "Thanks for the opportunity to attend him over the last seven years we enjoyed his ongoing business." Your Thank You Message could be a game to get your customer to buy more products. Inform the customer about future promotions or create special offers specifically for Fia's customers. You can also advertise any seasonal promotions in your invoice forms. For example: "As a thank you for your ongoing business, we would like to offer you 10 percent discount in your next order." Or, "Thank you for your order! Join our sale day of patritium with a 25 percent discount on green chapters." Tell customers how to take advantage of business with a message as "Enter the discount spat code at your next purchase." The message section in an invoice can be an incentive to get customers to your site, Facebook page or other social media. Enjoy them with the promise of more promise, new products or atosís tips: "Thank you for your order to get new home improvement tips, signing our newsletter Visit our site to know more! ..."
