River wey mooring for sale

Unique design of one after passing the first lock, we were greeted by our groom, George Keene, bringing a favorite chestnut pony, 14 high hands, whose task was to tow the boat until we reached the Sea.Â € JBDashwood 1868 barges have been used since the first days of the operation of the two navigations along the Wey River. Over time, the barge manufacturers developed its unique barge design, which differ also from those that are later built the adjacent Basingstoke channel. The WEY barges were 70 feet (21.34m) in length and 14 ft (4.27m) in width, these dimensions dictated by the particular serrature size of the navigation € s. The barges were wide with beams in â €
